

I feel the no call list should stay as it is. It is so annoying when you are taking care of a love one (such as your 83 year old mother and the phone keep ringing with telemarketing calls. Your love one can't get any rest and neither can you.